

Better Work Better Lives

The Trade Union Campaign for a Fair Share for All

Owen Reidy

ICTU Assistant General Secretary

22nd June 2018

Overview

- What is the campaign?
- Why this campaign?
- How is the campaign operating?
- What does success look like?

What is the campaign?

- Trade union campaign - 24 trade unions in the NIC-ICTU
- 200,000 workers across NI
- Jan 2018 – Sept 2019
- Seeking a forum for Social Dialogue for NI
- Multidimensional approach
- Building capacity

Why this campaign?

We want to challenge,

1. Rise in low pay and insecure work
2. Declining public investment
3. 1% pay cap in the public service

How is the campaign operating?

- A political lobby, MLA's, MP's and DC's
- Engagement with civic society groups
- Rallies/protests
- Supporting Industrial Action when appropriate
- Seminars
- Social media

What does success look like?

- Majority of political class supportive of a forum for Social Dialogue
- Civic society support
- Activists from various unions campaigning together
- Building capacity
- Forum for Social Dialogue a means to an end, not an end in itself